Mr Onkar Warange i/b Mr Anand Kulkarni, for the petitioners.
Mr G.H.Keluskar, for respondent no.1.

CORAM: D.B.BHOSALE,J.
DATED: 12.10.2006

P.C.:

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

On the last occasion, the following order was passed:

"Mr Keluskar, learned counsel for respondent no.1, states that the suit from which the present petition arises itself seems to have been disposed of. However, he seeks time to confirm from his client. Mr Warange, learned counsel for the petitioner, also seeks time to find out whether the suit is still pending. In the circumstances, stand over for one week."

Today when these petitions are called out, Mr Warange, learned counsel for the petitioner, submits that despite his efforts there is no response from his clients. It indicates that the statement made by Mr

Keluskar on the last occasion is correct and, therefore, the petitioners are not coming forward to give instructions to their advocate and it seems they have lost interest in these petitions. In the circumstances, the writ petitions are dismissed for nonprosectuion.
